A Card.

To the citizens of Greensboro:

I am now a resident of Greensboro, having located here to do first class sign and house painting. I represent myself to you as an ideal painter and will allow you to judge. You have already seen specimens of my work. Allow me to say that I have served in the highest capacity in my line for the past ten years. During and since my apprenticeship I have been associated with skillful and expert painters and am prepared to insure good and durable work, executed by skillful and sober workmen. All kinds of house and sign painting will be done with neatness and despatch. My motto is to please you. I give you the officers of Bland county, Virginia, as reference as to my honesty and fair dealing, they having known me from my boyhood to the present time.

Very respectfully,
J. H. Newberry.

P. O. Inspector Transferred.

Postoffice Inspector John D. Buller, who has been looking after the offices in South Carolina and Georgia has been transferred to the territory embracing North Carolina. Mrs. Buller and children are now in Washington. Mr. Buller was in the city this morning. He says he will have no headquarters in this state as he is kept on the road most of the time. He is a bright man who knows his business and we wish him the success which has attended him in his former territory.

Ladies have you seen the "Original Carline" shoes sold for $2.25 at Thacker & Brockmann's? They are the best fitting, best looking, best wearing shoes in the city for the price.

THE REVISED DISPENSARY BILL

The Board of Control To Be Selected
By The Board of Aldermen—Other
Objections Have Been Met.

A bill to be entitled an act to establish a dispensary for Greensboro. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, barter or exchange any spirituous, vinous, malt or intoxicating liquors, of any kind, in the city of Greensboro or within one mile of the city limits, except as hereinafter provided; and anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined a sum not less than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned, not less than six months, or both.

Sec. 2. That the board of aldermen of the city of Greensboro shall, on the second Friday of April, 1899, elect five good and true men who shall constitute the dispensary board for the city of Greensboro, whose term of office shall begin on the first day of May, 1899; the term of the first one named shall expire in two years from said date; the second, four years; and so on in the order named, the term of one expiring every two years; and vacancies occurring by the expiration of the term, as aforesaid, shall be filled by the said board of aldermen, who shall elect for a term running two years beyond the longest existing term of the said commissioners, and any vacancy occurring in any other way, shall be filled by the said dispensary board for the remainder of the unexpired term. The said dispensary commissioners, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall make oath that they will well and truly carry out to the best of their ability all of the provisions of this act; and the resident judge of the district may remove any of said commissioners when it shall be made to appear that he has violated his oath or been guilty of malfeasance; and the said dispensary commissioners shall serve without pay or remuneration of any kind: Provided, the said board shall elect one of its members as chairman and one as treasurer, and may allow the treasurer such compensation as they may see fit, and said treasurer shall give bond, payable to the city of Greensboro, conditioned upon a proper accounting for the moneys that may come into his hands as such treasurer, in a sum not less than five thousand dollars, to be fixed by said dispensary board: Provided, said bond shall never be less than the amount of money in the hands of the treasurer: Provided further, that said treasurer may give bond with some safe bonding or trust company as surety and charge the expense of giving such bond as an expense of said dispensary.

Sec. 3. The said dispensary board, on the first day of July, 1899, or as soon thereafter as possible, shall establish one dispensary in said city, to be located on one of the principal streets for the sale of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, and there shall be no prosecution under this act for the sale of liquor until said dispensary shall be opened. The said dispensary board shall elect a manager, for said dispensary, who shall be a man of good character and sobriety who shall have charge of the same under the supervision of said board, and who shall hold said position of manager at the pleasure of said dispensary board, subject to be discharged without notice. The said dispensary board may appoint such assistants, or clerks as they may deem necessary, and may discharge them, at pleasure, without notice. The said manager shall be required to give bond, payable to the city of Greensboro, in such sum as the dispensary board may determine, not less than one thousand dollars, conditioned upon the proper accounting for all moneys that may come in to his hands as such manager and for the faithful performance of the duties of his office as manager, as prescribed in this act and in the rules and regulations of said dispensary board, and the said manager shall receive such salary or compensation as may be fixed by said dispensary board, which, however, shall never depend upon the amount of sales. The said board may likewise require bond, payable as aforesaid, and in such amounts as they may deem proper, from such clerks or assistants as they may employ.

Sec. 4. The said dispensary board shall have power to employ attorneys, agents and detectives to assist in the detection and prosecution of persons, firms or corporations violating this act, and for other purposes; may employ chemists or other competent persons to test liquors; may borrow money, and shall have power to do all other proper things not contrary to law to carry out the true intent of this act.

Sec. 5. For the purpose of procuring the necessary funds for the establishment of said dispensary, the board of aldermen of the city of Greensboro shall appropriate such an amount, not exceeding two thousand dollars, as may be demanded by said dispensary board, and said amount shall be repaid out of the profits arising from said dispensary: Provided, said dispensary board may establish said dispensary without receiving said appropriation. The manager of said dispensary shall on Monday of each week pay to the treasurer of said dispensary board all moneys which he may hold as said manager, and shall keep a strict account of all liquors received by him, the amount sold and the amount on hand, and the said treasurer shall hold and disburse all the funds belonging to said dispensary and after paying expenses and after reserving such a sum as the dispensary board may deem necessary to carry on the dispensary, shall, on the first day of January and on the first day of July of each and every year pay over twenty per cent of the profits of the said dispensary to the treasurer of Guilford county and eighty per cent of said profits to the treasurer of the city of Greensboro.

Sec. 6. The manager of said dispensary shall, under the supervision of the said dispensary board, purchase all liquors necessary and proper for said dispensary, and may purchase such pure liquors as may be in the hands of the liquor dealers in the city of Greensboro: Provided, that said dispensary board shall refuse to pay for all liquor found not to be pure.

Sec. 7. No liquor of any kind shall be sold in said dispensary on Sunday or election days, and said dispensary shall never be open, or liquors sold therein, before sunrise nor after sunset on any day. The prices at which said liquor shall be sold shall be fixed by said dispensary board: Provided, all sales shall be for cash and at a profit not exceeding eighty per cent of the cost thereof. No liquors shall be sold in said dispensary except in unbroken packages, or bottles, which shall contain not less than one-half pint and not more than one quart; and it shall be unlawful for said manager, or any other person, to open any such package or bottle on the premises, and the said manager shall not allow loading or loitering or drinking on the premises, and any person drinking liquors on the said premises, and any person refusing or failing to leave the said premises after being ordered to do so by the said manager, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

Sec. 8. Before selling or delivering any intoxicating liquor to any person, an application must be presented to the manager, or his clerk or assistant, printed or written in ink, stating the kind, quantity and price of liquor wanted, dated of the true date and with his or her true name signed thereto, and the manager shall keep a book for this purpose. If any person shall make any false or fictitious signature, or sign any name other than his own to any application or make any false statement on any request or application he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. No intoxicating liquors shall be sold to any minor, intoxicated person or habitual drunkard, and the dispensary board shall make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this act, as may be proper for the management of the dispensary.

Sec. 9. If the manager or clerks shall procure any intoxicating liquor from any person other than those that the dispensary board shall direct, and offer the same for sale, or shall adulterate or cause to be adulterated any intoxicating, spirituous, vinous or malt liquors by mixing with coloring matter or any drug or ingredient whatever, or shall mix the same with water or with other liquors of different kind or quality, or shall make a false entry in any book or return required by this act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 10. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, keep or maintain by himself or by associating or combining with others, or who shall in any manner aid, assist or abet in keeping or maintaining any club room or other place in which intoxicating liquors are received or kept for barter or for distribution or for division among the members of any club or association by any means whatever, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. All books required to be kept by the manager of said dispensary shall be open to the inspection of the public, and any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than one hundred dollars and imprisoned not less than three months, for both, except where the penalty is otherwise provided.

Sec. 12. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed: Provided, that this act shall not be construed so as to repeal any prohibitory laws already in force; and section 3,111 of The Code shall not apply to this act.

Sec. 13. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

The War Investigating Committee Winding Up.

PROBABLE FATE OF PEACE TREATY

Senator Hoar Will Ask For Consideration of Ewart's Case To Be Taken Up Wednesday.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The investigating commission has nearly completed its report of the conduct of the war department and expects to be able to present the report sometime next week, probably Wednesday. All hope of hearing from James Farnau, of Chester, Pa., who declared that he had seen beef treated with chemicals at Omaha, has vanished, as he paid no attention whatever to the telegraphic or written summons of the commission. In fact all the witnesses who declared they knew the beef was embalmed declined to testify under oath.

MAY DECIDE ITS FATE.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Today's developments in the senate may decide the fate of the peace treaty. Both sides are lined up and ready to fight. Monday at three o'clock there is a chance that the preliminary skirmish will fore-shadow the result. The contest is as close as can be and the shrewdest politician in the senate cannot predict with any degree of confidence which side will win. The sentiment is dramatic and never has there been such acute division of sentiment in the senate.

JUDGE EWART'S CASE.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Senator Hoar will ask for the consideration of Ewart's nomination for next Wednesday. The house has taken up the naval academy appropriation bill, and debate is limited to ten minutes.

ARE NOW RUNNING IT.

We Simply Desire To Make a Change For the Better.

Editor Telegram.—The moral man says the church is going into the liquor business. The prohibitionists say amen to this. Now, I wish to show that the church people and the prohibitionists are today running the liquor business in Greensboro. Look at the city board of aldermen, all are members of churches except one. Look at the board of county commissioners, all are church members and two of them are prohibitionists. Well, the city aldermen recommends and the county board grants the permit to sell. This is all well enough, but now these same church people desire to change the play of selling liquor. Have they not a right to do so? We all believe the dispensary the lesser evil, so why not try it? The opposition is about threefold for something to say when they try to bring in the church racket. I tell you now that the church people are in this thing to a finish, for if they have to bear the stigma of running the liquor business, they are going to run it their way. Citizen.

VIEW OF CITY AND MOUNTAINS

From Wharton & McAlister's New Office Building.

The brick work on Wharton & McAlister's new building is almost finished, there being only a small amount of artistic work to do at the top and front of the structure. The roof is being put on and this also will soon be completed and the building will be turned over to the plasterers.

From the top of the building a splendid view of North, East and West Greensboro can be had, though a view of the Southern part of the city is cut off by trees. Sauratown mountain in Stokes county is plainly visible on bright days, as are also many peaks of the Blue Ridge chain, near Mt. Airy. It is a sight worth going to the top to see, though ladies cannot yet make the trip. When the building is completed, however, the roof may be easily reached.

COL. OSBORN CHOSEN

One of The Directors of The State Penitentiary.

Yesterday the legislature elected a new board of directors for the state penitentiary composed of one man from each judicial district in the state. Among the names balloted upon and elected we are pleased to find that of our esteemed townsman and fellow citizen Col. W. H. Osborn.

The bad management of the penitentiary during the last two years is one of the monuments of "fusion" misrule, and it will take level heads and wise counsel to extricate the institution from the bad odor into which it has come. Such men as Col. Osborn are the men on whom the difficult duty should fall—men of ability and sound judgment.

"Side Tracked."

That sensational comedy "Side Tracked" with its scenic and mechanical effects, its bright, up-to-date singing and dancing specialties, catchy music and mirth provoking situations, will be the attraction at the academy of music on the 10th inst. The powerful figure in the play is a tramp through whose persistent efforts, a mysterious crime is finally cleared up, the good rewarded and the guilty brought to justice. The cast contains such people as E. H. O'Connor, Billy Bowers, R. E. Vance, L. C. Leroy, Gertrude Barnes, Marguerite Mayfield, Josephine Roberts and others.

A Street Sweeper.

Last night about ten o'clock the heaviest rain witnessed here in a long time began to fall. It began like a regular summer-time storm accompanied by bright lightning. For two hours or more it was one continuous pour—a regular gully washer and trash mover. It was the best street-sweeper that has visited Greensboro in many moons. The streets, sidewalks and gutters were full of mud and filth, but this morning they are swept clean, for which the community is thankful.

Nearly a Hundred Pairs.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Harrisburg, Feb. 4.—There was no quorum in the joint assembly today, nearly a hundred pairs, because of the democratic caucus, pledging its members not to be present in order to prevent the possibility of Quay's election by breaking pairs.

Men don't have a chance every day in the week to buy three dollar shoes for $1.98. Thacker & Brockmann still have two or three dozen to sell at that price—sample shoes, odd pairs, etc. Better go and secure a pair before your size is sold out.

A. & M. COLLEGE.

The remarkable growth and development of the colored A. & M. college in this city is most gratifying to its friends and projectors. Founded for the express purpose of giving moral, mental and industrial training to the colored youth of the state it finds itself in the midst of a field of usefulness which is broad, deep and fertile. Under the wise and conservative management of President Dudley (who should by all means be retained in his present position) the institution has outgrown what was at first thought to be ample room and equipment. In order that the growing usefulness of this institution may not be retarded it is necessary that another dormitory be erected. To this end a move is now being made to induce the legislature to provide for this necessity.

The effort commends itself to thoughtful people for various reasons, one of which is a desire on the part of progressive and public spirited men to complete a job once begun. It would only be in consonance with good business principles. What would be thought of a farmer who, on raising a large crop, would only prepare to house and take care of part of it, leaving the remainder out to be soaked and rotted by the winter rains? That is a homely comparison, perhaps, but the idea is this: Here is a movement started to teach the colored youth in industrial pursuits which is now recognized to be the material salvation of the race. As Booker T. Washington says to his race, "learn a trade, educate yourselves in the various industries, and politics need have no charms for you. The problem will be solved." Perhaps we have not quoted his exact language, but that is the meaning. And it is the truth.

The crop is ripe for the harvest and the buildings are too small to house and take care of it. The institution is full and many others are knocking for admission. Indeed, with the present facilities the work already started will be greatly hindered and retarded during the next two years.

The institution speaks for itself. It is well managed. President Dudley has grouped about him a competent faculty and the college gives every evidence of being governed by the best rules of discipline. The Telegram ventures the hope that the legislature will see its way clear to grant the request for increased equipment, that the good work so auspiciously begun may be extended and enlarged to a degree commensurate with practical and legitimate demands.

KISSING THE BIBLE.

A bill has been introduced by Mr. Craig, of Buncombe, to abolish the custom of kissing the Bible in taking oaths. The bill ought to be passed. Our friends, the Quakers, may be relied upon to tell the truth as accurately as any people under the sun, and they are constitutionally opposed to kissing the Bible and strictly adhere to their rule. A man who will tell a deliberate lie in court will swear to it, and kissing the Bible will have no influence over him. A Quaker's affirmation with uplifted hand is just as binding as any man's oath sworn on the Holy Evangelists. There are other views. The Morning Post says: The placing of the hand on the Book carries with it as much sanctity and is just as binding, as kissing it, and too much indiscriminate kissing of anything becomes nauseating, if not positively unhealthy. A magistrate of New York ordered the kissing stopped and said:

"There is no law to compel any one to kiss a Bible when taking the oath and I shall not tell witnesses to do so. Bibles should be abolished in police courts. A manner and classes of persons kiss court Bibles, and the constant handling makes the books nothing more than breeders of disease. Hereafter I shall swear witnesses by asking them to hold up their hands."

The Post further says: We do not believe there is any law in this state requiring the Bible to be kissed. This particular act gives no additional integrity to the oath taken, nor adds to the obligation of the witness. The custom, as it is only a custom, should be abolished, and if it requires such a measure as that introduced by the very sensible Representative from Buncombe to stop it then that act should become a law at once.

TAYLOURS AND SMYTHS.

They Were the Commonest Trades in the Thirteenth Century.

The manufacture of leather in the thirteenth century seems to have been important, showing that leather jerkins and breeches were commonly worn. We have 19 skynners, 40 barkers, 6 saddlers, 8 cordeweners, 167 suters, (shoemakers) and 8 glovers. The surname Taylour is a trade name denoting a maker of pack saddles.

The commonest trades are Taylours and Smyths, since one lived in almost every village. The Taylours number 407, of whom 140 are called by the Latin name of cissor. In addition to 261 Smyths, several are specialized. There are two armymyths, three lakesmyths, three goldmyths, five fercours (shoemaking Smyths) and six marshalls (farriers).

The wryght wrought both in wood and metal. The number catalogued is 186, of whom 81 are called by the Latin name faber (French faver), one of the few cases in which the Latin translation of a trade name has become a common surname. The wryghts' trade, like that of the Smyths, was specialized. The wryght made the great arks or chests in which the clothes or meat were stored, and we find a plowwryght, a wheelwryght, two shippewryghts, 11 cartwryghts and two glasswryghts (glaziers), who were probably concerned with the windows of churches. Glass windows in houses were rare, as is still the case in Sicily or Egypt.

The bakers are few (15), suggesting that families baked their own bread. There are 26 butchers (flesher, bocher or carnifex), whence Labouchere, while the surname potter shows that this trade was in existence. The fryshers (43) were the bakers, being taxed 18 times as much as laborers.—Notes and Queries.

At Springfield, Ill., it is proposed to put a bronze statue of Frances E. Willard in the National Capitol at Washington.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt of South Gardner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

There are 582 lepers in the United States and Dr. Hitt, of India, now at Battle Creek, urges the establishment of a leper asylum.

Mr. S. A. Faackler, editor of the Micanopy (Fla.) Hoster, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe and its exhausting aftereffects. Never fails. Howard Gardner.

Two children of John Feeny were killed by escaping gas in their home in Brooklyn.

The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. Dr. Wirt's Little Early Risers are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver troubles. Small pill, best pill, safe pill. Howard Gardner.

The treaty between the United States and the Creek nation has been ratified at a conference at Muscogee, I. T.

Coughing injures and inflames sore lungs. One Minute Cough Cure loosens the cold, allays coughing and heals quickly. The best cough cure for children. Perfectly harmless. Howard Gardner.

Sir William McDonald, the millionaire tobacco manufacturer, of Montreal, has given to McGill University $181,250, bringing his gifts up to $2,650,000.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Shepherd, publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Eldon, Mo., says: "No one will be disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for La Grippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act. Howard Gardner.

The stockholders of the Atlantic & Yadkin railroad will hold their first meeting next Saturday in Wilmington.

The Ravages of Grip.

That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough, heal the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drugstore.

Expert Swimmers.

The Swimmers spend three-fourths of their existence in the water. Their first act on awakening is to bathe. They bathe at 11 o'clock, again at 8 and again at sunset. There is scarcely an hour in the day when bathers may not be seen in all the creeks, even the shallowest and muddiest. Boys go to play in the river just as our children go to play in the street. A traveler tells of a Siamese woman sitting on the lowest step of a landing place, while, by a girdle, she held in the water her infant of a few months. Were not the Siamese expert swimmers many lives would be lost, for the tide flows so swiftly that it requires the greatest skill and care to prevent boats from running foul of one another.

A story is told of an English boat running down a small native canoe containing a woman and two children. In an instant they all disappeared. The Englishmen were on the point of jumping to their rescue when they bobbed up, and the woman, upon recovering her breath, poured forth a volley of abuse. Having thus relieved her mind, she righted her canoe, laded out some of the water and banded in the children who had been comported swimming around her, regarding with mingled fear and curiosity the barbarians who had caused the mishap.

He Knew Chester.

Mr. Gladstone had a nice taste in hot mutton pies. One of the Wesleyan journals recalls a conversation which R. W. Perks had with Mr. Gladstone at a public dinner in London, when the premier asked all sorts of questions on matters pertaining to Methodism. A man who happened to sit exactly opposite, wishing to divert the conversation into another channel, asked, "Do you know Chester, Mr. Gladstone?" "Yes, a little," was the answer, an ominous smile playing about the mouth. "Do you know Chester, Mr. Gladstone?"

"Not very well," said the unwary questioner. "Well, if you go to the city of Chester you will find a confectioner's shop in such a street," giving the number. "Go into that shop, and you can buy a hot mutton pie, deliciously hot," and here Mr. Gladstone screwed up his eyes, and his face became as white as a last stake, and he lost that also. But when our generous gamester had found his lordship sufficiently punished for his temerity he returned all, only stipulating that he should be paid $5,000 whenever he should think proper to make the demand. However, he never made any such demand during his lordship's lifetime, but some time after his decease, Mr. Nash's affairs being in (sic) the wane, he demanded the moneys of his lordship's heirs, who honorably paid it without any hesitation. "His story of Gambling in England."

Beau Nash as a Gambler.

When the late Earl of T—d was a youth, he was passionately fond of play and never better pleased than with having Mr. Nash for his antagonist. Nash saw with concern his lordship's foible and undertook to cure him, though by a very disagreeable remedy. Conscious of his own superior skill he determined to engage him in single play for a very considerable sum. His lordship, in proportion as he lost his game, lost his temper, too, and as he approached the goal seemed still more eager for ruin.

He lost his estate. Some writings were put into the winner's possession. His very equipage was offered as a last stake, and he lost that also. But when our generous gamester had found his lordship sufficiently punished for his temerity he returned all, only stipulating that he should be paid $5,000 whenever he should think proper to make the demand. However, he never made any such demand during his lordship's lifetime, but some time after his decease, Mr. Nash's affairs being in (sic) the wane, he demanded the moneys of his lordship's heirs, who honorably paid it without any hesitation. "His story of Gambling in England."

Absolute Indifference.

A woman who has been a victim of indigestion and is kept to dyspepsia's diet most of the time was recently invited to a dinner, which she was anxious to attend. She went to her telephone and, trusting to a somewhat unreliable memory, she asked to be connected by the ever obliging "central" with telephone 3894. When the connection had been made, she began her plaintive query, without any preface, "Is that you, doctor?" "I want very much to go to a little dinner tomorrow night," she began rapidly, "and do you think it would hurt me if I ate a taste of soup, and perhaps a little fish or the least trifle of game and a bit of salad or ice? I really think my stomach!" Here she was interrupted by a voice from the other end of the wire. "Madam," it said coldly, "eat whatever you please. This is the Meteor Rubber company.—YOUTH'S COMPANION."

One of Toole's Jokes.

One of Toole's greatest practical jokes was as follows: He once gave a supper to 80 of his friends and wrote a note to each of them privately beforehand, asking him whether he would be so good as to say grace, as no clergyman would be present. It is said that the faces of those 80 men as they rose in a body when Toole tapped on the table as a signal for grace was a sight which will never be forgotten.

Bargain Decks.

Yes, it was the first time she had ever been on board a warship. "And this," the lieutenant went on to say, "is the quarter deck." "And that deck over yonder," she exclaimed, indicating the forecastle with a pretty gesture, "is that the 5 cent deck or the 10 cent deck?"—Detroit Journal.

In Russia when coffins are covered with red the color of the coffin is said to be a certain extent distinctive, pink being used when the deceased is a child or a young person, crimson for women and brown for widows, but black is in no case employed.

NORTH CAROLINA.

By virtue of the powers conferred upon me in a certain order made by the Superior Court of Guilford county in a cause, therein pending, entitled Mrs. Nellie Wright, et al., ex parte, do hereby certify that on the 21st day of March, (it being the sixth day) to the highest bidder at public auction, for and to the use of said county, I have sold the following described land and premises, to-wit: One acre and one-half of land, situate in the town of Greensboro and fronting on said street 62 1/2 feet and running back about 100 feet and adjoins the land of C. J. Fick and others, on the south, Hob Allen on the south, J. W. Richardson on the west, and others, and contains about half of one acre, more or less. Upon which is situated a nice live rock and a good well and a barn. It being the home place of Joe Albritton, deceased. This 28th day of January, 1899. A. L. BROOKS, Commissioner.

THE BEST SHOW.

The Moonshiner's Daughter at The Academy Last Night.

The writer has seldom seen a play which he enjoyed more than that given by the Whitney Players at the academy of music last night, the "Moonshiner's Daughter." It is an old bill, but these people have worked it over until it is almost new and nearly all of the "blood and thunder" features have been eliminated. There is only one man killed in the play. It was decidedly better than the "Little Widow" which so pleased a big audience the previous night.

The work of Mr. Atkinson as the moonshiner, Mr. Keough as Jerry and Miss Atkinson as Nell, the moonshiner's daughter, was cleverly performed. In fact, all the parts were well taken and fully sustained. The specialties, as on Thursday night, were good, considerably above the average. Tonight closes the engagement of the Whitney Players in our city when they will play the "Bowery Waif." The same popular prices will prevail, a gentleman and lady or two ladies on one paid 30-cent ticket. The "Little Widow" was repeated at the matinee this afternoon.

The Negro Liberated.

Officer Whittington last night received a letter from the chief of police of Rock Hill, S. C., saying that the South Carolina authorities would not issue requisition papers for Henry Green, the negro arrested on suspicion here yesterday. The letter said that Green had stolen the harness and one umbrella from Dr. Massey and another umbrella from Miss Massey. The Rock Hill authorities asked that Green's picture be taken and sent to them to enable them to identify him if he ever visited those parts again. Green's face is so frightfully arranged, however, that Mr. Whittington could not induce any of our photographers to try him. The prisoner was taken out and told to "git", which he did, taking the shortest route to get out of the limits of the city.

Some Facts About Our MANTELS.

1. They are of handsome designs. We "pick out" the best that a number of the best factories in the country can offer. We have a number of new and handsome designs now in stock.
2. They are made of selected woods. There is a great deal of difference in woods—even in oak woods. Let us show you the difference between a piece of plain, coarse grained oak, and a piece of handsome, quartered oak.
3. The workmanship and finish are faultless. Made and polished like a piano.
4. The people buy them. We furnished one customer over seventy mantels, with tiles. This speaks for itself.

Midwinter Closing Sale of Our Large Stock of Shoes.

Once every six months we hold a genuine closing out sale. Our Spring Shoes are now in process of making and before they will arrive we expect to close out the greatest part of our present great shoe stock. Of course we will have to sacrifice profit and even part of the cost of many of our shoes, but we will not summer over any of our winter shoes, no matter how great our loss.

The sales opens Thursday morning, so come early before the sizes are broken up

Of Interest to Parents

The little child of George White came near burning to death Saturday night. She was standing in front of the fire when her cotton dress ignited, and but for the quick heroic action of her mother, would have burned to death. Mrs. White had her hands severely burned in putting out the clothing of her little one.—Durham Special to Raleigh Morning Post, Jan. 31.
